

The Time on Selected Activities over Age

The area plot shows the time spent on the selected activities over age. The x-axis encodes the age in years, and the y axis encodes the average time spent on each of the selected activities. The activities are selected to include the top-3 where people in general spend most of their time on (sleep, work, TV), as long as socializing and relaxing.